

{ April 2011 }

ART DIARY

GAJOURM

The long awaited exhibition by Kal Gajourm will be held from the 4th of Juin to the 4th of July 2011, at the Beauchamp Art Gallery located at 55 Simcoe Street in Toronto. You may also meet the artist on Saturday the 4th of June from 1:00 pm-5:00 pm. We suggest that you reserve your places before May 28th at rsvp@galeriebeauchamp.com

You may be part of the first people to view the exhibition, via internet, by writing to us at

vip@galeriebeauchamp.com

Kal Gajourm :: Venetian Sunset (30 x 70 in)

UPCOMING EXHIBITIONS

Rozenvain - Brutsky - Aleksandra - Gendelman - Kosman - Sabina

Rozenvain :: Daytime melodie (36 x 36 in) Brutsky :: L'élégante (40x40 in) Kosman :: Musique, tu me tiens (40x40 in) Gendelman :: Je danse pour toi (40x40 in)

Exhibition to be held at the Espace-Galerie B8, located at 49, rue St-Pierre in Quebec from July 2nd to August 6th 2011. You will be able to meet the artists on Saturday July 9th from noon to 5:00 pm.

INVITATION

We invite you to send us photographs of paintings you have purchased within one of our galleries, and that have been placed in your home to decorate your space.

These will be published in a new section titled 'your photographs'...

<http://www.galeriebeauchamp.com/blog/clients/gallery/>

FAVORITES / NEW ARRIVALS

Scott Addis :: Excited (18 x 24 in) Carl Camiré :: Levée Juratoire (40 x 30 in)

Novelties at the Beauchamp Art Galleries:
Carl Camiré, Scott Addis

New artists in gallery:
Margarita Lypiridou and Carl Dubreuil

Lypiridou

An artist of Greek origin, Margarita Lypiridou, was accepted this month at the Beauchamp Art Galleries. Her paintings are a marvellous combination of sensations and emotions. The artist depicts real life experiences and memories that have survived through time.

Margarita Lypiridou :: Morning fog (36 x 60 in)

Dubreuil

Carl Dubreuil is inspired by master painters such as Titien, Rembrandt, and Rubens. Born in Quebec, self-taught, and very active in his community, Carl Dubreuil donates some of his paintings to organizations for children. He has been painting full time for the past 7 years. He feels at ease with landscapes, portraits, and still life scenes.

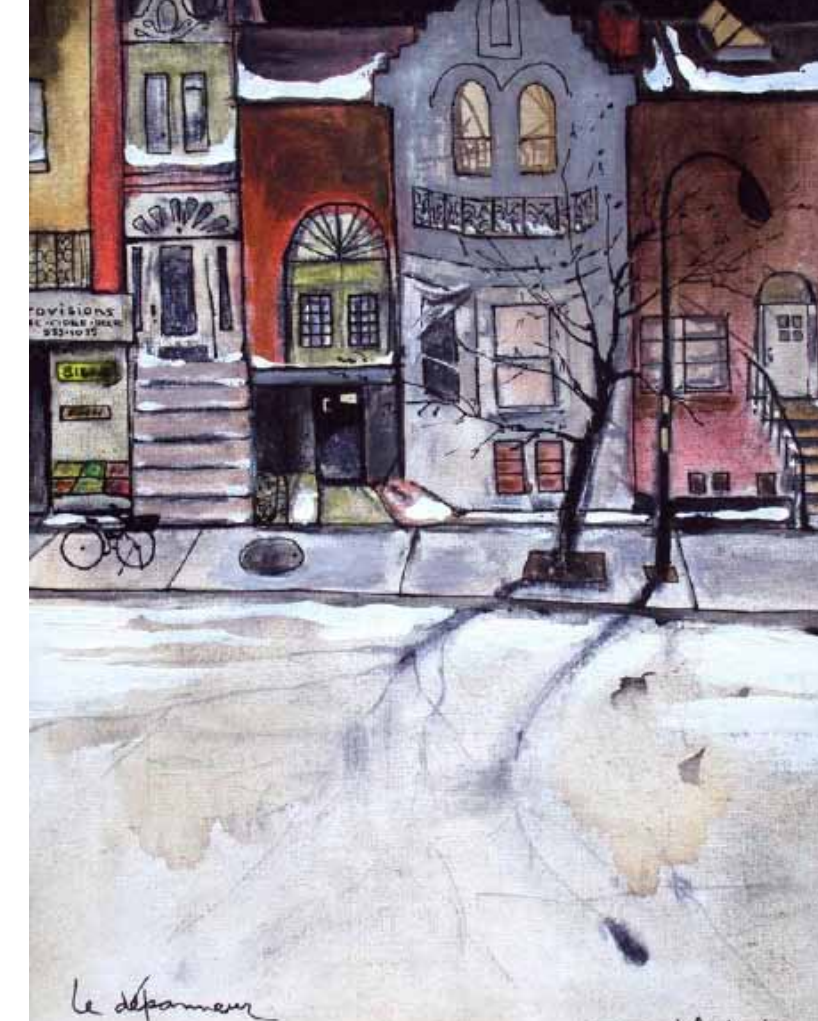

Carl Dubreuil :: Le Crépuscule (16 x 20 in) Carl Dubreuil :: L'ingénue (24 x 20 in)

New Acquisitions:

3 new paintings by Normand Hudon (1929-1997)
2 new paintings by Adam Sheriff Scott (RCA-1887-1980)

Adam Sheriff Scott :: Eskimos (24 x 36 in)

Normand Hudon :: Le Dépanneur (16 x 12 in)

THIS MONTH ...

BARACK  BAMA, PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,

is now the thrilled owner of a painting that represents the Saguenay by Quebec artist René Gagnon. We are all very proud!

René Gagnon :: Paysage du Saguenay (16 x 20 in)

Charles Carson :: Avalanche de couleurs (48 x 48 in)

Charles Carson was honoured recently when he was named artistic consultant for the Drouot reference guide-book of modern and contemporary artists of Canada.