LAROCHELLE

POWER OF IMAGES

Sébastien Larochelle, a fabulous artist from Montreal, has once again outdone himself. To his collection, he has decided to add popular symbols and industrial icons. His themes will stay the same: horses, bulls, and women. However, he will add inscriptions and motifs that mark our unconscious and thereby constitute a vibrant testimony that withstands the test of time. Sébastien reiterates his belief in the power of images and boldness in the use of traditional and contemporary iconography.

An exhibition is also expected. More information to come...
