

Art Diary

July, a festive month for Quebec City and for the Beauchamp Arts Galleries

A week-end not to be missed or forgotten...

On the week-end of the 4th and 5th of July, the Beauchamp Family presented two artists in their galleries;

Stephanie Delisle and Helene Fleury. Stephanie Delisle was painting live at the Beauchamp Art Gallery, located at 50, rue Notre-Dame. While Helene Fleury was painting live at the Beauchamp Contemporary Art Gallery located at 69, rue Saint-Pierre and 28, rue du Sault-au-Matelot.

Stephanie Delisle's style is very funky. Her women are always represented with over-sized jewellery. Flowers ornate their abundant, overflowing mop of hair. One can almost hear the jazzy tune that comes from the double-bass she often paints.

Helene Fleury's style is also contemporary, however it is more minimalist in its representation. Gold leaf is always present in her paintings. Watching this talented artist painting live was certainly just as 'grand' as her worldwide reputation.

Even though both these women had very different artistic endeavours, both artists shared their love for life with the people around them as well as their mutual talent. The week-end of the 4th and 5th of July, truly a week-end filled with the festive energy of summer..truly a successful event.

Virtual Exhibition of Paintings by Melan...

The Beauchamp Family presented an exclusive virtual exhibition from the 8th to the 22nd of July, of paintings by Melan, an artist from Quebec. Melan's paintings are quite the acquisition and so this 'virtual event' was the perfect opportunity to acquire one of her pieces.

High in colour and texture, Melan's paintings have the ability to uplift one's spirit. In a Melan painting, the traditional subject of a flower in a vase takes on an entire different meaning and look. Her flowers seem to be animated and her colour palette is breathtaking. A virtual exhibition that came just in time for the summer vacations...

Some novelty for the Beautiful Season...

With the arrival of summer, the artists at the Beauchamp Art Galleries are presenting their new creations.

The Beauchamp Family's storage now overflows with novelties by: Daniel Gauthier, Melan, Saint-Aubin, Roch Therrien, Stephanie Rivet, Carl Camire, Katia Poulin, Martin Beaupre, Farrugello... There is plenty of artwork to choose from and the diversity of the pieces is very impressive. The Beauchamp Art Galleries, an activity to add to your itinerary this summer.

Artist in Gallery; Melan...

On the 18th and 19th of July, Melan an artist from Quebec City, painted live at the Beauchamp Contemporary Art Gallery, located at 69, rue Saint Pierre and 28, rue Sault-au-Matelot. Melan is a sought for artist who recently had an article in the 'Parcours Magazine' stating her as being a 'sure-value' as a young contemporary artist. Her work is fresh, stylish, and original. What a wonderful occasion to meet Melan in person. The artist proved to be is just as passionate, and interesting as is her work.

To mention but a few of the upcoming events for the Month of August...

Gisele Boulianne live at the Beauchamp Art Gallery

On the 2nd of August exclusively, Gisele Boulianne will be painting live at the Beauchamp Art Gallery located at 10, rue Sault-au-Matelot. This dynamic artist has participated in many Art Shows throughout the country as well as those abroad. Gisele Boulianne is an international artist that is recognized worldwide for her urban paintings and who has won many prizes for her artistic endeavours. Do not miss such a privileged opportunity to meet her.

Kim Veilleux live at the Beauchamp Royal Art Gallery

On the week-end of the 15th and 16th of August, Kim Veilleux will be painting live at the Beauchamp Royale Art Gallery located at 53, rue St-Pierre. Kim Veilleux has recently participated in an Art Show at Kamouraska. Many fans were there to acclaim her. Seize the chance to come and meet her in a very personal context at the Beauchamp Royal Art Gallery. You will surely fall for one of her heart warming paintings as well as be touched by Kim Veilleux' s generous nature.
