The Beauchamp Family's storage now overflows with novelties by: Daniel Gauthier, Melan, Saint-Aubin, Roch Therrien, Stephanie Rivet, Carl Camire, Katia Poulin, Martin Beaupre, Farrugello... There is plenty of artwork to choose from and the diversity of the pieces is very impressive. An activity to add to your itinerary!

A New Accomplishment for Martin Beaupré...

Martin Beaupré has been exhibiting his paintings at the Beauchamp Art Galleries for quite some time now. His paintings can be found at the Beauchamp Art Gallery located at 28, rue du Sault-au-Matelot. His paintings have been purchased by admirers all over the world. His style is unique and very spiritual. Martin Beaupré is very much influenced by the Asian culture. He even uses a very old technique used by the Tibetan Monks called 'Zenga'. Needless to say that this artist's paintings are innovative, original, and very profound.

During the month of August, Martin Beaupré started exhibiting his paintings at the Beauchamp Art Gallery in Baie-Saint-Paul located at 16, rue St-Jean Baptiste. This has not gone unnoticed, for since then Martin Beaupré has sold an astonishing large number of paintings. All of which were part of his new production. Do not miss Martin Beaupré's new arrivals at both of the Beauchamp Art Galleries.

Say Hello to Kim Veilleux... and your child like innocence at the Beauchamp Royal Art Galleries...

Kim Veilleux painted live at the Beauchamp Royal Art Gallery located at 53, rue St-Pierre on the 15th of August. Kim Veilleux is inspired by her childhood memories and by the bedtime stories she now reads aloud to her own children.

Many admirers attended in order to set their child-like innocence free...What better way to soothes ones soul than by contemplating paintings that will let the child in you have fun.

With the end of August,
two new Artists were accepted at the Beauchamp Art Galleries...

Art collectors rejoiced by the new arrivals at the Beauchamp Art Galleries... Two new artists are exhibiting their paintings at the Beauchamp Art Gallery located at 10, rue Sault-au-Matelot and 125, Côte de la Montagne.

Micheal Rozenvain was born in Ukraine, but he now lives in Toronto and is a worldwide known Canadian artist. He is a gifted colorist and excels in colour contrasts and combining harmonious shades. His paintings depict the Parisian lifestyle by their cobblestone streets, the little French Cafés, and the street musicians. The elaborate texture and the rich colour palette that he uses, make the paintings of Rozenvain a priced acquisition. Come and see for yourselves how talented and popular this artist is.

Patrick Pepin is yet another talented artist the Beauchamp family added to their long list of valued painters. This man is a "globe-trotter" who has managed to associate both of his passions; that of painting and that of travelling. His many journeys across the globe to far away places that most people have never visited, is his source of inspiration. He paints his heart and soul. Through both his travels and his paintings, he risks the unknown, leaving all to chance and fate.
