

Art Diary

The Month of November was an exceptional month this year weather wise. All rejoiced at the unexpected sunshine. So it was for the new arrivals at the Beauchamp Art Galleries... November brought along awaited treasures by Kal Gajoum, Joelle Blouin, and many more...A new Beauchamp Art Gallery also opened its doors to a mesmerized audience...

Feedback on Joelle Blouin's Private View...

Extravagance was certainly at the 'rendez-vous' on the 7th of November at the Espace Galerie B8, located at 49, rue St-Pierre. More than five hundred people showed up for Joelle Blouin's Private View. This lavish evening began at four o'clock and ended at around nine thirty pm, but had it been up to the guests, it could have lasted all night long.

The ambiance was one of pure delight. A live D.J was there to set the mood, drinks and hors d'oeuvres were served in abundance, and the interior design of the Espace Galerie B8 was equivalent to the most up beat Lounge anywhere around the globe. Artist Joelle Blouin was there with little Chihuahua Bella to greet all those who had come to the Private View of her fabulous urban and contemporary paintings. All those who attended were in awe over Joelle's artwork as well as by the new dynamic space the Beauchamp Family were revealing for the very first time.

An overall success for both young artist Joelle Blouin and the Beauchamp Family!!!

An eighth Art Gallery for the Beauchamp Family

The Beauchamp Family celebrated the grand opening of yet another Beauchamp Art Gallery. The eighth Art Gallery to be more precise.

On the 7th of November, the night of Joelle Blouin's Private View, the Beauchamp Family announced the official opening of their new Art Gallery named 'Espace Galerie B8' located at 49, rue St-Pierre. Besides exhibiting beautiful art work, as night falls, this Art Gallery will also be transformed into a site where Private View's will occasionally take place. Espace Galerie B8 will distinguish itself from the other Art Galleries as being "The premises" for the most zealous art collectors to lounge in. Accompanying these eccentric, sought-for evenings will be wine, hors d'oeuvres, fabulous music, and the artists themselves. All the elements to make an evening successful and enticing.

Kal Gajoum's virtual exhibition

All the customers of the Beauchamp Art Galleries were more than rejoiced to finally view KAL GAJOUM'S Virtual Exhibition which started on the 15th of November...

Kal Gajoum produces only a few paintings each year, that is why the Beauchamp Art Galleries cannot exhibit as many of his creations as they would like. The scarceness of his work, however, causes his pieces to become priceless and exclusive. Acquiring a Gajoum then becomes all that more valuable and precious.

To attain this degree of notoriety is quite an accomplishment for this young artist. Being famous worldwide, as is Kal Gajoum, proves that his skill is undeniable. He masters his art with brilliance and manages to mesmerize admirers with his intricate strokes of the spatula. His creations always overflow with romance and seduction. One would almost want to be propelled into one of his paintings to live, if but only a moment, the bohemian life they project.

Kal Gajoum's virtual exhibition is held from the 15th of November to the 15th of December, an event not to be missed!!! You may view his work on the website at www.galeriebeauchamp.com Or you may want to prolong the pleasure even longer by visiting the Beauchamp Art Gallery located at 10, rue du Sault-au-Matelot. Moreover, let yourselves indulge even further and come to see Gajoum's paintings at the new Beauchamp Art Gallery; Espace Galerie B8 located at 49, rue St-Pierre. The lounge like atmosphere of the new gallery brings forth the beauty and the intricate work of Kal Gajoum's creations. An outing that will surely thrill all those who admire his work...
