

Art Diary

The year 2010 certainly began with Strength and Charisma

Vincent Cordo, an artist from Saint-Hyacinthe who was born in 1972, now exhibits his paintings at the Beauchamp Art Gallery located at 10, rue Sault-au-Matelot. Through the female character, Cordo's creative expression is brought forth. He tends to capture the modern woman who has to co-exist with the many facets of everyday life.

When one gazes upon a Cordo painting, one is transported into a universe that is tinted with softness and voluptuousness. The atmosphere in Cordo's paintings is accentuated by the various mediums he uses; such as the glossy varnish, the insertion of words and wood pieces. All of these elements are there to enrapture the viewer. His women are sometimes charming, mystic, or imbued with desire.

The setting in Cordo's paintings brings one to search the same momentary evasion and bliss that his female characters project. A vision of pure delight...

Another new artist who was chosen to exhibit at the Beauchamp Art Galleries this past month was Normand/Ferland. Actually, these are two artists who work in unison on the same creation. Their work may be found at the Contemporary Beauchamp Art Gallery located at 69, rue St-Pierre and 28, rue du Sault-au-Matelot.

Les Galerie d'art Beauchamp - The Beauchamp Art Galleries

Yan Normand and Nancy Ferland form an artistic duo of artists who distinguish themselves by the practice of sculpting metals such as iron and bronze.

Having studied in fields directly linked to their professional activities, Yan and Nancy use their professional experiences to realize their projects. Their remarkable artistic creations distinguish themselves by the originality and the unity in the actual construction of each piece.

Spontaneity and experimentation guide these two artists. Therefore, they have been able to achieve a unique style to their creations. This authentic artistic approach is indispensable when it comes to their particular realizations.

Irene Gendelman, Nathan Brutsky, and Aleksandra are also three other artists that the Beauchamp Family chose to exhibit in their galleries. The instigator of this encounter was one of their other artists, Micheal Rozenvain. Friends with the latter artists, he introduced their work to the Beauchamp Family and the reaction was most favourable. All three artists are very different from one another yet their colour palette is rich and soothing...View the fabulous paintings of these new artists at: www.galeriebeauchamp.com

Irene Gendelman

Aleksandra Savina

Nathan Brutsky

Congratulations to the winners of this year's draw

Every Xmas the Beauchamp Family organizes a contest where 2 paintings are drawn. All those who are regular customers of the Beauchamp Art Galleries may participate in this contest. The two lucky winners were determined on the 10th of January...

The beautiful painting by Micheal Rozenvain, with its rich tones and intricate textures, was won by Mrs. Jocelynn Bureau who is from Quebec City. As for the stunning painting by Martin Beaupré, with its soothing colours and spiritual inclination, it was won by Mrs. Doris Tremblay who is from Ottawa. Congratulations to both of these blessed ladies. As always, there were many of the Beauchamp Art Galleries' customers who participated. To all those of you who participated but did not win, do not despair, your chance will come!!! Better luck to all of you for next year's draw...

The Art of Loving

In regards to the success obtained by last year's Valentines Day virtual exhibition; "Art for the Love of your Life", the Beauchamp Art Galleries decided to renew the experience.

Therefore, from the 4th to the 15th of February, one will be able to admire works by Lucille Marcotte, Valerie Allard, Helene Fleury, Julie Boulianne, Mélan, Martin Beaupré, Lyse Marsan, Angela Morgan, and Mélanie Simard at www.galeriebeauchamp.com for the 2010 Valentines Day virtual exhibition "The Art of Loving"...

What better way to please the one you love than by offering a gift from the heart...make Love your priority this month!!!

The Official Opening of the Beauchamp Art Gallery in Toronto

The opening of this new Art Gallery at 55 Simcoe Street, in Toronto was staggeringly awaited by art collectors and admirers. The doors of the Beauchamp Family's new art gallery were opened on the 6th of January, 2010. Many were there to see, for the first time, this new French Gallery and its Quebec artists. However, the official grand opening of the Toronto Beauchamp Art Gallery will be held on the 25th of February 2010. All are cordially invited from 5 to 7 o'clock pm to this exceptional event where cocktails and hors-d'oeuvres will be served. Moreover, the Beauchamp Family Members will be there for the grand opening, to greet and acknowledge the accustomed customers as well as the new ones.

A glamorous evening, set in a tasteful and stylish décor. A unique, cultural event held in Toronto. A wonderful opportunity for our Quebec artists!!!!

For the upcoming year 2010' one may expect to see many Live Artists and Virtual Exhibitions, as well as making the discovery of new artists at the nine different Beauchamp Art Galleries located throughout the Old Quebec, Charlevoix, and Toronto. A New Year filled with Magic, Beauty, and Success... Be part of the action at the various Beauchamp Art Galleries!