

Art

Diary

May 2010

Spring has brought along an impressive amount of new talented artists at the Beauchamp Art Galleries

In all of the Beauchamp Art Galleries you will discover new artists, all different from one another. You may also view the new collections on the website www.galeriebeauchamp.com To mention but their names, here is a list of the various artists you will have the pleasure of contemplating when you tour the seven different Beauchamp Art Galleries located in the Old Quebec...

At the Royal and Ass. Art Gallery, located at 124, Côte de la Montagne, you will find a new artist by the name of Pierre Bellemare.

Pierre Bellemare

Leila Labelle

Marie-Chantal Lebreton

Josée Forest

At the Bel Art Gallery located at the corner of St-Pierre street and Côte de la Montagne, you will find the following new artists Josée Forêt, Leila Labelle and Marie-Chantal LeBreton.

Art Diary

At the Beauchamp Art Gallery located at 10 rue du Sault-au-Matlot and 125, cote de la Montagne, you will find Marie Rioux.

Marie Rioux

Chris Hill

At the Beauchamp Art Gallery located at 50, rue Notre-Dame, you will find paintings by Chris Hill.

At the Contemporary Beauchamp Art Gallery you will find creations by Niso Maman, André Schirmer, and Gabrielle Dumont.

A real delight for all those who appreciate Art!!!

André Schirmer

Niso Maman

Gabrielle Dumont

Martin Beaupré: "The Journey of my Soul"
An event not to be missed!

Besides finding the perfect place for each artist, besides learning all we can on each new artist to better explain and inform you when you visit, besides writing all of the biographies of each new artist in both French and English, besides taking all the necessary pictures needed to keep the website up to date so that you may view every new painting and artist as they arrive, besides all of the usual chores involved in keeping the Beauchamp Art Galleries to your standing, the Beauchamp Art Gallery Team has been busy at work preparing an astounding evening for all of you interested on Saturday May 15th, entitled "The Journey of my Soul".

Art Diary

Produced and presented by the Beauchamp Family, conceived and artistically directed by Ms. Josée-Gabrielle La Bar, the spectacular event entitled 'The Journey of my Soul' held on May 15th at 49, rue Saint Pierre, Espace B8, promises to be an artistic experience that will have people talking. Ms. La Bar was inspired by Martin Beaupré's paintings for this 'nouveau-genre' Private View.

Three art forms have been combined for this extravagant event that of painting, dance, and music. Throughout the evening, the public will view a live painting performance by a Quebec artist, Martin Beaupré who is strongly influenced by the Asian culture. A famous oriental actress and dancer, Ms. Tai Wei Foo, who is also presently working with Robert Lepage, will play the character of a Geisha, dressed in an authentic traditional Kimono. At the end of the evening, Ms. Foo will also interpret an intense contemporary dance routine that will reveal the strong spiritual energy that encompasses Martin Beaupré's paintings.

Furthermore, Japanese Taiko drum musicians will perform live in front of the audience. Free refreshments, Japanese beer, sake, Japanese tea, and sushi will also be served and a painting by Martin Beaupré will be drawn amongst those present. An evening not to be missed from 5:00 to 8:00 pm. Josée-Gabrielle La Bar has created a new artistic concept and she intends on directing many more Private View's of this kind at the new Beauchamp Art Gallery named Espace Galerie B8, located at 49 rue Saint-Pierre... Stay in tune for the others to come...

Moreover, those who may not attend the 'nouveau-genre' private view will be able, none the less, to see Martin Beaupré's paintings on the website at www.galeriebeauchamp.com From the 15th to the 30th of May there will be a Virtual Art Exhibition of his paintings on the website. Martin Beaupré's paintings will also be exhibited at Espace Galerie B8 located at 49, rue Saint Pierre until the end of May. After the event, the Beauchamp Team will also prepare a special slide-show of what went on that evening that will be placed on the website for all to see...

Upcoming: Mélan's virtual exhibition

Coming up in June is the virtual exhibition of paintings by Mélan... Read the blogs for more information.

